Newhall Signal & Saugus Enterprise ★

SIGNAL SPORTS

Joe Franco, Editor

Photo by Gary Thornhill

Stocker Jeff Holmes (84) has no place to go but forward — into Robert Wade's spinning car.

Crow, Leis Big Winners At Saugus Speedway After Disqualifications

Auto Racing

By Tim Trepany
Signal Staff Writer

Current points leader Larry Krieger was first across the finish line in the NASCAR Hobby Stock oval and figure 8 trophy dashes and in a figure 8 heat, and was second in the oval B and figure 8 mains Saturday night at Saugus Seedway, but his efforts still didn't gain him anything.

"I wasn't here tonight," Kreiger said.

The same can be said of Allen Boles and Canyon Country's Joe Barreras Jr, who raced to the checkered in the oval B and figure 8 mains, respectively.

The trio was disqualified after post-race inspections revealed they raced with illegal tires. All were caught using tires with a softer texture than allowed. Soft tire texture affords greater speeds.

So Kreiger, who used only one illegal tire — the left front — Barreras and Boles were stripped of any points or trophies they won. The trophies and points were awarded to racers who crossed the finish line behind them.

Rick Crow was one of the beneficiaries, crossing third in the figure 8 main behind Barreras and Krieger. It was Crow's first figure 8 main win.

"I consider it a third, but I'll take the first place trophy and first place points," Crow said. I'm happy with third the way the car is beat."

but Pittinato was forced to drop out because of damage to her car.

(I was thinking), Oh no, not again," Pittinato said. "Something similiar to this happened a couple of weeks ago where you see it happen and can't do anything about it."

Shanon Flavin won the oval A main, with Ray Duff second, followed by Greg Van Grinsven and Newhall's Ray Maxon.

Van Grinsven started on the poll and held the lead until lap 16, when Flavin passed him. Duff took second on the next lap and battled the leader for first, but Flavin held him off for the win.

Tom Schmidt was first out of five cars in the 10-lap foreign stock main. Schmidt also won the foreign stock heat race.

Other winners on the night were; Van Grinsven (oval heat); Kusch (oval heat); and Duff (figure 8 heat, oval jalopy tropohy dash).

Edberg Hangs Tough, Wins 1st Wimbledon

Pro Tennis

By Morley Myers
Wimbledon, England

Stefan Edberg defeated two-time champion Boris Becker 4-6, 7-6 (7-2), 6-4, 6-2 to win the rain-delayed Wimbledon final, becoming the first Swede to capture the crown since Bjorn Borg in 1980.

Becker netted a backhand on forehand induced a defensive volley from Edberg that looped over the net. With the court open, Becker raced in, snatched at the shot and netted the ball.

Edberg squandered a chance to take control of the second set when he failed to capitalize on two break points for a 2-0 lead. He gave Becker a break point in the the third set for a 2-1 lead. Edberg held in the fourth with a love game, during which Becker received a code violation warning for throwing his racket.

With Edberg serving at 40-0 in the 10th game, Becker saved one set point with a passing shot down the line, but Edberg put away the

Legion Baseball

Santa Clarita Gets Pitching